Me and my bag pack
This worlds like a huge playground with many things that I must explore. Many things had been prepared for me out there, waiting for me to listen, see, feel, touch and smell. I am with my backpack right now, ready to make a small step for my big vision. It will be a very long journey.

Derived from the concept of playground where an atmosphere of fun, enjoyment, getting together and comfort seating in the air, this sectional seating systems accommodate your space in numerous, creative ways. BRACCA offers flexibility, possibility and options where users can create their combination with its extreme versatility. Designed by Sujak Hasbolah, BRACCA can be configured to users desire and let their creativity flow. It is space saving and ideal for any meetings, be it small or large. His ingenuity in designing four elements of two seats and two backrests truly serves its versatility.
