

COSSA

Working at a WE Place!

COSSA is a flexible partition that divide spaces into zones; bringing distinctly new perspective to the workspace. Form unlimited possibilities of space design with COSSA flexibility; from creating semi-private boundaries for personal workspace, team collaboration, socialize lounge and even to relax pantry.

It's time to say goodbye to distraction with COSSA acoustic sound absorbing material which reduces noise and high-pitched sounds. Special engineered technology has been implemented into the structure design for a better acoustic performance.

COSSA is available in sets of 5 and also single freestanding partition, which suit a wide variety of spaces and functions.

Creating a product design no more about an object. It's about experience. We generate a new opportunity for user to experience the brand, the emotion, the environment, the space and the ambiance. A strong commercial aspect pervaded user understanding in design and believe in good design to create a good product.
